

RBF APPOINTS NEW CEO 7 April 2010

The RBF today announced the appointment of a new Chief Executive Officer Mr Philip Mussared.

Mr Mussared, a former Deputy Secretary of Treasury and Finance and the Department of Health and Human Services in Tasmania, returns to work in the State after four years in Sydney with NSW Treasury.

RBF chairman, Damian Egan, said Mr Mussared possesses all the requisite attributes necessary to lead RBF into the future.

“Philip has the necessary and appropriate experience and skills to lead RBF into the future while at the same time competently and professionally managing the business,” Mr Egan said.

“Philip has extensive skills in people and project management. He is committed and enthusiastic about all of RBF’s business plans.”

Mr Egan said Mr Mussared will commence with RBF on Monday, 12 April 2010.

“I congratulate Philip on his appointment and I look forward to working with him in the future.”

Philip Mussared Biography

2006-2010

Deputy Secretary
NSW Treasury

2005-06

Project Director, Review of Strategic Asset Management and Maintenance
Department of Education, Tasmania

2004-05

Deputy Secretary
Department of Health and Human Services, Tasmania

1994-2004

Deputy Secretary
Department of Treasury and Finance, Tasmania

1972-1994

Various Commonwealth agencies including the Australian Foreign Service, The Treasury, the Attorney-General's Department and the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet and the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development in Paris.

Mr Mussared has a BEc (Hons) and BA and is a Fellow of CPA Australia, the Australian Institute of Company Directors, the Institute of Public Administration Australia and the Australian Risk Policy Institute. He was President of Swimming Tasmania from 2001 to 2009.

For further information, contact: A.Mark Thomas, CPR, 0422 006 732